THE SECOND DISTRICT.

Faulkner and Boteler at Romney, Hampshire County.

ROMNEY, October 7, 1874.

Editors of the Intelligence.

By published appointment Messrs. Faulkner (caucus) and Boteler (Independent) candidate for Congress in this District, addressed a large and intelligent audience at Romney on the 6th inst, first day of October county court.

A relief before the solid entertainment of the day was something very precisely provided by the Camden Ring ladies in the shape of an overture to the regular proceedings from Public Printer Walker, who was present, and a reply thereto by the Hon. Robert B. Sherrard, our State Senator. Walker wanted to tell what he knew about Gov. Jacob, a native son of this county, of whom it may well be said, but the P. P. piped very gently indeed on the subject when he saw the circumstances, especially the audience, surrounding him. In reply to what he ventured to say about Gov. Jacob and his friends, Mr. Sherrard arose and told the people what he knew about the Public Printer. The truth is the P. P. got into the wrong box, for his Bourbon brother, Faulkner, subsequently in his speech, and previously in all his association and in the most notorious character decidedly.

Of Mr. Faulkner's speech it is proper to say that he spoke long and well, as became a gentleman growing old. He is somewhat garrulous, as age is apt to be, and of shouldering the crutch to show how fields are won, and some of his autobiographical passages were not just as remarkable for modesty as they might have been; still, as I said, the speech was generally quite passable for a hustling age.

BOTELER'S REPLY.

Col. Boteler's reply to Faulkner was one that almost came under the statue providing against cruelty to animals. He showed up the wretched caucus system by which Faulkner had obtained the nomination over Martin. He paid a just and well merited compliment to the latter, whom the wily Faulkner had so ruthlessly immolated on the altar of his selfish ambition. He also pointed to Faulkner's salary grab record, at the time the salaries of Congressmen were raised from $3 per day to $3,000 per year.

Faulkner, in the course of his speech, had sought to cast imputation on Boteler's position as an independent candidate for Congress, by identifying him with the Democrats, and by joining him in his denunciations of Judge Berkshire (whom he called "the unjust Judge") and Hon. Wm. G. Brown, whom he denounced as a "promoter and prosecutor of trespass suits." Boteler's rebuttal to Faulkner was so convincing in answer to the covert attack which the latter had thus made upon him.

Col. Boteler is a man worthy to represent this District in Congress. He is large headed and of broad and liberal views, and possesses the ability to serve the interests of the people in a popular assembly like the House of Representatives at Washington. If Eastern Pennsylvanians had their duty next Tuesday he will be our next Congressman.

A few Questions to the Independent Candidate for Commissioner of Richland Township.

Have you made any report of the $1,000 placed in your hands in June, 1873; and if so, to whom did you make said report?

Did you not, within the last year, let three contracts on the east end of Woods' Run road to yourself under the assumed name of your sons Morgan and Joseph; and did you ever report to the Board of Commissioners the condition of said contracts?

How many days did you charge the county for superintending yourself on the above named contract? Or, to make the question more comprehensive, did you not charge the county with 90 days for three dollars and fifty cents per day for superintending the above named contract?

Did you not, at the late Democratic Convention to nominate Commissioners, seek from them the nomination, and, failing, did you not bring forth your pet contractors and nominate for them (the Democracy) a man whom you considered incompetent for the position; and did you not ask your friends to vote for him, and you had succeeded in nominating a candidate for the Democratic party?

Did you not bargain with one Mr. Connelly to secure to him the superintendency of the Bethany pike, in consideration of the support of his (Connelly's) family at the coming election?

Did you not bargain with one Mr. Bruner, in consideration of the support in the coming election of his (Bruner's) family, to give his brother-in-law, Mr. Wharton, contracts on the Wood's Run road?

Doctor, by answering the above questions, the voters of Richland township can easily determine whom to support for Commissioner.

TAX-PAYERS.

A chance to go to West Point from this District.

A vacancy exists in the Military Academy at West Point, which I am requested by the Secretary of War to fill by appointment from the 1st Congressional District. Young gentlemen desiring the appointment are hereby notified that a competitive examination will be held at Clarksburg on the 1st day of November, 1874, of all applicants for the cadetship.

The qualifications for admission are thus stated by the Secretary of War in his letter of instruction, viz:

"PHYSICAL QUALIFICATIONS.—Candidates are admitted into the academy only between the ages of 17 and 23 years; those who have never served in the regular or volunteer army during the late war, and have been honorably discharged, are, by special provision of law, eligible up to the age of 24. No candidate less than five feet in height can be admitted. Candidates must be free from infectious or immoral disorder, and, generally, from any deformity, disease or infirmity which may render them unfit for arduous military service.

"MENTAL QUALIFICATIONS.—The candidate is required by law to be proficient in Reading and Writing; in the elements of English Grammar; in Descriptive Geography, particularly of our own country; in the History of the United States. In Arithmetic, the various operations in addition, subtraction, multiplication, division, simple and compound proportion, and vulgar and decimal fractions, must be thoroughly understood and readily performed.

Candidates undoubtedly deficient in any one requisite, or more than one, WILL NOT BE ADMITTED.

Our Moundsville Letter.

MOUNDSVILLE, October 9, 1874.

Editors of the Intelligence.

The discussion yesterday between Giff and Wilson at the Court House was a great affair, to say the least of it. Both are good speakers and able men, and their speeches were well received by the large audience present. But as the INTELLIGENCER has represented here it is not necessary for me to say anything concerning the affair. I might add that although Wilson evinced great tact and ability, he alluded to his competitor as a mere boy, the boy is more than a match for him, and aroused far more enthusiasm from the audience than could the Colonel. At times he was very eloquent, and his remarks were greeted with rounds of applause.

Our public school held its first monthly review on last Tuesday. Several of the parents were present and the day passed pleasantly. Our school grounds need much repairing, and we hope our Board will see to it that the needed improvement is promptly made.

Our Lyceum will soon commence to hold its weekly meetings. I suppose as soon as the election is over the members will have leisure to attend to it.

I hear a great many people say that Moundsville is dead, (by the way the editor of the National thinks so) and they cite the fact that there is no business done, &c. Now we contend that this is a mistake. There is much business done, but the trouble is that our town extends over so much territory that our business is so scattered that a stranger on visiting can only see a small portion of it at a time, and thus comes to the conclusion that we do no business.

The "model" Baker men have sold the right of Marshall county to G. McFadden. No doubt Mac will make it go if there is a go in it. By the way, this model Baker is the thing for housekeepers. No family should be without it, and we apprehend that all the families of Marshall county will soon be in possession of it.

Candidates were plenty yesterday, and the usual amount of good talking was being done to secure the people's votes. Our rolling mill is now in operation both day and night. This looks like business; and it is to be hoped that it will continue to do so all winter.

There will be preaching at the Disciples' Church next Sunday, morning and evening. The services will be conducted by Rev. Wilson, their new minister, who there will be long expected. Hereafter there will be preaching at this church regularly, we believe, every two weeks.

We are sorry to chronicle the death of Captain D. M. Williamson. He died yesterday at noon of consumption. His funeral will take place to-morrow. He is to be buried with the honors of Masonry.

Our Captain was highly respected, and his loss will be deeply felt, not only by his family, but also by the entire community.

Our Western Correspondence.

WESTON, October 7th, 1874.

Editors of the Intelligence.

The Hon. Okey Johnson and the Hon. D. D. Farnsworth spoke here a few evenings since. The editor of the Democrat (called Wm. A. Dow) says that the honorable Okey gave the honorable Dow a lively drubbing. Wm. did not attend the meeting in person, but that fact was no drawback to his knowledge that Okey came out about it, and furthermore told him that although he had been a Republican all his life he was now ready to burrah for Col. Ben Wilson. The Dow long Republican referred to is a near relative of Wm.'s—a carpet-bagger from the jay-hawing State of Kansas, who acted as Wm.'s reporter for the evening. He made a mighty convenient cover (didn't he?) for Wm. to attempt to bill the market for Col. Ben. Some of us about here know Wm. His immense predisposition to misrepresent—to twist everything for party purposes—even to lie a little when necessary—is familiar to us, knowing who his Republican informant and convert is, I could not resist the temptation to expose Wm. and so let your readers hereabout understand his "little game."

A Question.

To the Honorable General Andrew Jackson Pennell:

Are you in favor of holding the Directors of the defunct Wheeling Savings Institution liable for the deposits in that institution? A DEPOSITOR.

COMMERCIAL AND FINANCIAL.

MARKETS BY TELEGRAPH.

New York Money and Stocks.

New York, October 9.—Money—2 3/4 per cent; prime mercantile paper 6 1/2 per cent.

STERLING EXCHANGE.—Weak at $184 1/4 for 60 days and $187 1/4 for 90 days. The advance in borrowing rates for cash gold had a depressing effect on the Exchange market.

GOLD.—Opened at 110 and closed at 110 1/4, the sales of the day having been at these figures. Borrowing rates 1 1/4 per cent and 1 1/2 per cent per annum. Loans were also made flat at the close. There was some little fear of a "squeeze" in cash gold in the future. The Assistant Treasurer disbursed $33,000. Clearings $33,000,000. Customs receipts $37,000. Exports of dry goods for the week $3,010,347.
